APPROACHING GOD

Prelude Andantino (Interlude) Chauver
(A time of silence to prepare our hearts to worship; please silence your cell phone)

Word for 2026: Practice.
People: May we practice becoming. (Pause. Breathe. Begin worship.)

Salutation
Grace and peace from God the Father and Jesus Christ.
Amen.

Call to Worship
We gather not because we have mastered wisdom—
but because we are learning how to practice it.
We come seeking understanding, not shortcuts.
Wisdom calls us to slow down,
to listen more deeply,
to choose what gives life.
Teach us to value what truly matters.
Let us worship God,
who shapes hearts, guards lives,
and forms us through faithful practice.

*Opening Hymn (#859 Red LUYH Book) Be Thou My Vision

Call to Confession
Wisdom teaches us that life flows from the heart—yet we often neglect what is forming us. We practice habits that drain us, listen to voices that confuse us, and guard many things—except the place where our lives begin. Before God and one another, let us tell the truth about what we have been practicing, and ask for hearts trained in wisdom. Let us confess together.

Prayer of Confession
God of wisdom and truth, You call us to guard our hearts, for from them flow the springs of life. Yet we confess that we have been careless with our inner lives. We have practiced distraction instead of discernment. We have rehearsed fear instead of trust. We have allowed voices—loud, familiar, or convenient—to shape us more than your wisdom. We confess that we do not always attend to what is forming us. We react when we are invited to reflect. We rush when we are called to listen. Forgive us for neglecting the work of the heart. Train us again in wisdom. Teach us to practice what gives life. Guard our hearts, O God, and begin your renewing work in us now. Amen.

(a moment for silent confession)

Words of Assurance
Hear the good news. God does not turn away from us when we tell the truth about our lives. When we name what has been forming us, grace meets us there. In Christ, we are forgiven, our hearts are not abandoned, and we are invited to begin again. Thanks be to God. Amen.

Passing the Peace
The peace of Christ be with you! And also with you.

Our Invitation

Welcome to United Reformed Church! As we join together in prayer, song, and praise to God, we pray that the blessings and fellowship you find here will enrich your life. *If you are physically able, an asterisk (*) indicates an invitation to stand.*

Bold text signifies opportunities for the congregation to read and respond responsively.

Consistory Nominations

The Nominating Committee is pleased to report that the following people have agreed to serve on the Consistory - Tracy Hagberg and Kimberly Rembis for a two year term as elder and Lorraine Sinski for a two year term as deacon. Their names are being posted for three consecutive Sundays preceding the Congregational Meeting on January 25th. If there are any concerns or questions please advise the elders.
